November 2016

What went behind.....

What an evening it was! Lights, colours, prizes, dance, music and masti ! Well if that's what you expect from a perfect dandiya event, you will agree that the Aura anniversary celebration was the most spectacular dandiya bash of the weekend. It was a day of fun and merriment when the Aura ladies came together with their families to celebrate the occasion. The vibrant bandhini and colourful ghagras added to the festive mood of the day. The practice session was well attended and many of us discovered that we didn't have two left feet after all! Those who missed the event, you have really missed a lot.

What Lies Ahead.....

The way you speak holds colossal power. It has the power to tap new opportunities or to shut the open doors; the power to build trust and the power to ruin it. It is the speaking skill that either forms an image of you as a change agent or a person requiring supervision.

DTM Sastharam Ravendran, who is a well known entrepreneur, motivator and public speaker will help us develop a better understanding of how our style of communication is impacting us and others with whom we communicate. It will be an interactive workshop with activities, questionnaires, discussions and more!

The Aura NEWSLETTER

I remind myself every morning.

Nothing I say this day will teach me anything.

So if I am going to learn,

I must do it by listening.
